

MASTER: IPDS
MODULE LANGUE ANGLAISE
INTERVENANT: PROF. ABDELMAJID RIDOUANE

Week 1: Presenting oneself:

Providing information about one's name, background, and interests clearly and concisely.

Articulating personal viewpoints clearly

Associating opinion with background and identity

Providing reasons and examples to support one's stance.

Grammar/Vocabulary/Speaking activities

Week 2: Providing spatial and temporal context

Giving detailed directions to a location

Specifying the time accurately

Situating oneself in a particular place and moment.

Grammar/Vocabulary/Reading activities

Week 3: Engaging in telephone conversations

Making and receiving phone calls,

Using appropriate greetings

Effectively communicating information over the phone.

Giving directions

Role play cards speaking pairs

Week 4: Describing the surroundings

Providing detailed descriptions of one's environment

Describing the physical features, atmosphere, and overall ambiance of the surroundings

Prepositions of place

Positive and Negative adjectives describing a space

Week 5: Sharing personal information

Discussing one's likes, dislikes, hobbies, and preferences

Giving others a better understanding of oneself.

Writing: Telling others about yourself

Week 6: Introducing 21st Century classroom practices

What are the top 10 skills of the 21st century classrooms.

Group Work

Week 7: What is Critical Thinking?

Seven steps for an efficient critical thinking process

Problem solving activities to test your critical thinking skills

Week 8: What is written and oral communication?

Assessing communication in an educational context

Assessing communication in a social context

Assessing communication in an impromptu random context

Weeks 9 10 11 : Proejct Presentations and Dicussions